MOBILE COUNTY COMMISSION

The Mobile County Commission met in regular session in the Government Plaza Auditorium, in the City of Mobile, Alabama, on Thursday, December 28, 2017, at 10:00 A. M. The following members of the Commission were present: Merceria Ludgood, President, Connie Hudson and Jerry L. Carl, Members. Also present were John F. INVOCATION

The invocation was given by Commissioner Jerry L. Carl, District 3.

Commission President Merceria Ludgood: Our holiday season brings glad tidings, but for many, this is a season of bereavement and grief. I ask as a general proposition that those of you who pray, however, you get there to your spiritual place; please remember that while we are glad, we have some among us who are sad during this time. Please keep this lifted up in prayer.

AGENDA #22

APPROVE MAKING REQUEST TO CHANGE CLASSIFICATION OF RAILROAD CROSSING NORTHERN ACCESS AT ACORDIS SITE FROM CURRENT CLASSIFICATION AS PRIVATE CROSSING TO PUBLIC RAILROAD CROSSING

County Attorney Jay Ross: This is not necessarily a request of Norfolk Southern Corporation, it was suggested that the County make the request for it to be a public crossing. If it is designated a public crossing, it will give them the ability to obtain state and possibly federal funding to enhance the crossing. It ties into the Lenzing Fibers, Inc. project, where we are improving the road at the north part of the access crossing. The crossing will equal the new road to the east and west side of it. Norfolk Southern Corporation did not exactly ask us to do it; they suggested that we do it. I just want that to be clear.

December 28, 2017

Commissioner Connie Hudson: Will the cost of maintenance change?

County Attorney Ross: No, ma'am, the cost of maintenance will not change. There is some cost associated with upgrades to the railroad as it crosses the road. There are three (3) partners at that site that use it, and two (2) of them have already agreed to share pro rata in the cost. I am waiting to hear from the third one. The total cost is estimated at sixty thousand dollars ($60,000.00). I have a verbal from Lenzing Fibers, Inc. and EcoSouth Services of Mobile, LLC, that they will pay twenty (20) and twenty (20). I am waiting on a third entity to tell us.

Commissioner Hudson: Okay, thank you.

Commissioner Hudson moved, seconded by Commissioner Carl, that the Board approve making a request to change the classification of the railroad crossing northern access at the Acordis site known as DOT# 727-808C; RR MP 128.474 MB from the current classification as a private railroad crossing to a public railroad crossing, and to authorize the Commission President to execute all documents related to same.

December 28, 2017

APPROVE CDP-104-18/SPONSORSHIP/
NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, USA, INC.

Commissioner Connie Hudson: Mr. Ross, this involves a religious institution, is it legally okay for us to vote on it?

County Attorney Jay Ross: Commissioner, it is my understanding that the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc. is a 501(c)(3), and that should make a difference. To give you a conclusive answer, I will need a little more research time. The Commission could approve it subject to legal review.

Commissioner Hudson: It seems when these appear on the Agenda, they should have already been through legal review before coming to the Commission. In that way, if there are any questions or issues, they can be aired out before our meeting.

Commission President Merceria Ludgood: I take responsibility for it being late, they did not get the information to me until late. I moved forward with it because I knew it was a 501(c)(3) organization and thought that would cure any concerns about the proceeds. I know they have received incentives for locating their meeting here and that puts it into the realm of what is allowable for us. I understand your concern.

Commissioner Hudson: I do not understand how it is based on the mission of the organization. It would have to be secular in order to fall within the guidelines of a 501(c)(3). I do not understand the difference; it seems like they overlap.

Commission President Ludgood: A 501(c)(3) can be for a charitable purpose, and it is for a charitable purpose.

Commissioner Hudson: I understand what you are saying, but for me, there is so much ambiguity it makes me a little bit uncomfortable to do it before we have an absolute opinion that it is within the legal guidelines.

Commissioner Jerry L. Carl: Are most churches 501(c)(3)?

County Attorney Ross: I do not think so. They all are exempt, but every church is not a 501(c)(3). This is really not a church; it is actually an organization.

Commission President Ludgood: It is a national organization of Baptist Churches.

Commissioner Carl: Do we have a meeting before the money is needed?

December 28, 2017

Commission President Ludgood: No, that is why I was pushing it.

Commissioner Hudson: Are you saying, vote on it today, and we give you discretion?

County Attorney Ross: No, ma'am, but from time to time the Commission has considered taking action on an item with the approval subject upon legal review, and I am offering that if it benefits the Commission.

Commissioner Hudson: Do you know at this point, if you will grant legal approval?

County Attorney Ross: I am not completely satisfied with the analysis I have done so far, I need a few more hours.

Commission President Ludgood: If that is our position, we need to make sure Visit Mobile knows they cannot use public money for incentives because they do provide incentives.

County Attorney Ross: I did not know that.

Commissioner Hudson: Is it your legal opinion that we can vote today to approve it contingent upon your legal review?

County Attorney Ross: I will be happy to give a legal opinion on if it is legal or if it is not legal.

Commissioner Hudson: We would not meet as a body to vote on this again so it will be your discretion to make a decision, correct?

County Attorney Ross: Only to the legality of it.

Commissioner Hudson: The legality is my concern.

County Attorney Ross: I will be happy to take that risk. Commissioner Ludgood said other organizations had supported this too, so it is likely that those other public fund groups have gone through this analysis and I am sure they are correct, I just have not seen it.

Commissioner Hudson: Other religious institutions that have charitable organizations?

County Attorney Ross: Commissioner Ludgood said other civic groups or other publicly funded groups in Mobile had provided some economic support for this organization.

Commission President Ludgood: The Salvation Army is a 501(c)(3), it is a religious organization, and it is a denomination. We support them, and they also get federal dollars. I would have never put this here if I was not absolutely sure of their status as a 501(c)(3) which puts them outside of religious purposes. This is to fund a program of that organization. That is how the Salvation Army does it, and we fund their programs. We do not fund that part of the Salvation Army where they are proselytizing; we fund the programs. The distinction made in a 501(c)(3) is you can fund a program, but you cannot fund the evangelistic aspect of it. We are helping to underwrite the cost of a national organization to locate their Winter Board Meeting here. If it had another name, I do not think it would have attracted the attention, but the fact that it has a denominational destination, I think has caused this concern.

December 28, 2017

Commissioner Hudson: They do have an arm involved in the religious aspects of the mission of the church, right?

Commission President Ludgood: So does the Salvation Army, the Salvation Army is a church.

Commissioner Hudson: I don't think we directly fund them.

Commission President Ludgood: We do.

Commissioner Hudson: Well not directly.

Commission President Ludgood: They get Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds.

County Attorney Ross: We have given the Salvation Army funds for purposes in the past.

Commission President Ludgood: They get federal dollars too.

Commissioner Hudson: Not for specific projects. I am not arguing; I just want to be completely comfortable. Mr. Ross has told us that he will make a decision based on his research and if he is comfortable with it, I am comfortable with it too. I just questioned it because I have always been of the opinion that we were disallowed to appropriate funds for any religious institution.

County Attorney Ross: The Supreme Court in June 2017 ruled that public funds could be contributed to churches for a secular purpose. It has nothing to do with this, but the decision broadens our typical thought process on giving funds to churches. This is not a church; it is an organization, and I will give a brief opinion after I check on it.

Commissioner Hudson: We can move forward based on your analysis of the legal standing of this request, correct?

December 28, 2017

County Attorney Ross: Yes, ma'am.

Commissioner Hudson: Okay. I will make the motion to approve based upon legal review and the discretion of the County Attorney to determine as to whether this fits within the guidelines.

Commissioner Carl: I don't have a problem in voting on this as the way it is. So move.

Commissioner Hudson: I made a motion.

Commissioner Carl: Okay.

Commissioner Hudson: Is my motion going to fail, if there is not a second?

Commission President Ludgood: Second. I understand wanting to be safe because we are responsible and we are susceptible to chargebacks if we do it wrong. If it makes everybody feel better for Jay to look at it, that is fine.

Commissioner Hudson: Our attorney offers us legal cover.

Commissioner Hudson moved, seconded by President Ludgood, that the Board approve CDP-104-18, sponsorship with the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc. in the amount of $2,500.00, for their Winter Board Meeting, subject to review by our Legal staff.
