

MOBILE CITY-COUNTY YOUTH COUNCIL
Ordinance 09-033 adopted April 12, 1992

Established:

The City Council of Mobile, Alabama, adopted Ordinance 09-033 on April 12, 1992. The Mobile County Commission established the Mobile County Youth Council in a regular meeting on August 10, 1992. An ordinance amending Ordinance 09-033 changed Mobile Youth Council to the Mobile City-County Youth Council.

Purpose of Council:

Establish a channel of communication between the youth of Mobile, the Mayor, the City Council, the County Commission, and the Drug Education Council, Inc.

Stimulate an interest in civic and cultural activities among young people.

Make available to the youth a source of information, in the form of the Council, regarding questions that may arise concerning the County of Mobile and its operation and functions.

Acquaint the county's young people with the multiplicity of opportunities available to them in Mobile County now and in the future.

Make it known to the youth that there is a genuine interest being taken in them by the county and its adult citizens.

Promote a sense of pride among the youth of Mobile County toward the County of Mobile.

Act in all constructive means and manners as a liaison between the County government and young people of our community, and in an advisory capacity to the County Commission on matters pertaining to the youth of Mobile County.
